THE HOSTEL

It is a privilege to be a resident scholar at Miranda House. The Hostel has been home to several famous and distinguished alumnae in their formative years. The college was established in 1948 by the then Vice Chancellor Sir Maurice Gwyer and the foundation stone was laid by Lady Edwina Mountbatten on 07 March the same year. The first building to come up was the Hostel. Designed by the renowned architect, Walter George, it is an architectural delight. The sprawling building with a red brick façade is iconic. It is laid out in an aesthetically designed quadrangle enclosing well-kept gardens, paced out by a pathway lined by bottle palms. The long corridors, the stonework balconies, the dining hall with a high arched ceiling and monastic long tables and benches add to its charm. Over the last few years, extensive restoration and refurbishment work has been undertaken to preserve the heritage character of the building and its unique interiors. A new hostel block was added in 2012. It integrates harmoniously with the old hostel and matches the grandeur of Walter George's construction, adding to its beauty with equal grace.

Located within the college campus, the residence opens on Chhatra Marg.

- The Vice Principal is in charge of the Hostel and is assisted by the Hostel Committee.
- The day-to-day functioning is taken care of by two Hostel Wardens.
