The 12th Indo-Dutch Collaborative Program

Intensive Interactive Program on Management and Cultural Contexts

27 January – 1 February 2020

This is an interactive, Management-based program, in which 10-15 students from each of the participating institutions can attend. The weeklong program consists of a series of lectures and workshops conducted by faculty from Utrecht and India.

Students who wish to participate need the following:

1. Good inter-personal skills
2. Good background knowledge about India – past and present
3. Willingness to commit themselves to the course completely, and attend all sessions – including formal as well as informal evening activities

Registration Fee: Rs. 3000/-

Fee includes conference kit, refreshments and conference lunches on all Program days. Fees, once paid, is non-refundable.

Please note that attending all sessions is mandatory for selected students. The Program may involve some evening events as well.
