- Dr. Sushmita Banerjee Sushmita
- Dr. Rohit Rai Rohit
- Dr. Priti Rai Jain Priti
- Dr. Tarang Kapoor Tarang Kapoor
- Dr. Swarnlata Sah Swarn Lata Sah

Agenda: Workflow, Quality Issues, and New Parameters of AQAR

1. Focus Areas of IQAC

The Co-ordinator welcomed the team and reiterated that the focus of IQAC will remain on Audits, Promotion, Surveys, and AQAR.

2. AQAR Parameters

The upcoming AQAR and its structure were discussed. The Co-ordinator apprised the team about the new NAAC format and shared the report of the MBGL workshop in Bangaluru, 11-12 August, 2025. Members noted that there are 10 criteria, each with 5 levels and multiple metrics. It was emphasized that demonstrating progression across successive AQARs is essential.

3. Mechanism for Data Collection

The need for systematic data collection from students was deliberated. It was decided that a Google Form would be circulated to ensure uniformity. Dr. Preeti Rai Jain will present a proposal on the design and execution of this mechanism.

4. Audit for Accessibility

Members were apprised that Accessibility Audit was underway and certain recommendations were being acted upon.

5. Documentation of Research Hours

A mechanism to document and log research hours for fourth-year dissertation students was discussed. It was proposed that a Google Doc with timestamp functionality be maintained at the Department level. This log should be verified by the Supervisor, ARC, and SRC, and updated weekly by students.

6. Department of Elementary Education Workflow

The Department of Elementary Education presented its workflow for 100 marks project work, which includes: Assignment of topic → Allotment of Supervisor → Field-based work → Presentation → Weekly meetings. The Committee agreed that fourth-year dissertation students may adopt a similar structured approach.

7. Recommendations to Academic Council (AC)

IQAC will submit its recommendation to the Academic Council to ensure quality benchmarks and uniform standards across all Departments.

CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

“PHILOSOPHY BEGINS IN WONDER”.
-ARISTOTLE

This conference brings together diverse philosophical traditions to critically engage with the complexities of the contemporary world. It invites reflections on technology, ethics, identity, and ecological responsibility through rigorous and interdisciplinary dialogue. By bridging classical insights with emerging debates, it reaffirms the enduring relevance of philosophy in shaping thought and practice today.
