Internal Academic Audit Observations & Suggestions

Department: History

Academic Year: 2020-21 (from 1 July 2020 to 30 June 2021)

Observations:

1. Webinars and panel discussions were organized with academicians of international renown.
2. The Department organizes well researched heritage walks.
3. Research paper writing workshops are conducted by faculty. The Department continued with this best practice despite new challenges owing to COVID.
4. Student research papers are encouraged and guided and paper presentation sessions are organized, judged and commented upon by outside experts.
5. The Department has a strong student-teacher connect. The Department keeps track of individual students' absence and requirements for support. Regular meetings with class representatives and members of the student council are held.
6. The Department has built a rich e-library that is an indispensable teaching-learning resource for students and teachers alike.

Suggestions:

1. The Department can strengthen UG research by offering students summer workshops/ projects.
2. The Department should device ways of reaching out to its students so that student progression can be more robustly documented.
