

Internal Complaints Committee

In terms of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Harassment and Redressal) Act 2013, with a view to provide protection against discrimination and sexual harassment of women at workplace and for the prevention and redressal of complaints of sexual harassment and for matters connected therewith or incidental there to, the Internal Complaints Committee has been constituted in Miranda House. The Complaints Committee will be responsible for the redressal of complaints made by students and ensure time-bound treatment of the complaints as provided in the Act.

The college invites nominations for the Internal Complaints Committee from the student representative from the 1st year to be mailed to wdc.president@mirandahouse.ac.in Or mailmhwdc@gmail.com
