

PREETI PANWAR
Preeti.panwar@mirandahouse.ac.in +919891752767

Education

Central Institute of Education, University of Delhi, Delhi
Ph.D. candidate (2019 onwards)

M.Phil. in Education (2017-19)

Dissertation – Lived-in Experiences of the Persons with Disability: Narrative Inquiry from the Perspectives of Equality and Justice

M.Ed. (2012-14)

Dissertation – Education for the Marginalized: A Case Study

B.Ed. (2011-12)

University of Delhi

B.A. (Prog.) (2008-2011)

Indira Gandhi National Open University, Delhi

M.A. in Political Science (2017)

SCERT, Delhi

Diploma in Education (2006-08)

Publications

- Trajectories of Persons with Visual Impairment: Narratives of a Woman, published by SAGE, Journal name – Contemporary Voice of Dalit
- Chapter in Edited Book
Title of the chapter – An Action Research to Improve the English Handwriting of a student of Class 5

Conferences and Presentation

- Attended in-service teacher's seminar and trainings organized by the school department.
- Moderated a session – School Education during COVID 19.
- Presented a paper named - An Action Research to Improve the English Handwriting of a student of Class 5 in Central Institute of Education

Employment Experience

- Worked as a Primary School Teacher in Presentation Convent Sr. Sec. School, New Delhi for 1 year and 5 months from July, 2012 to March, 2014.
- Worked as a Primary School Teacher in Kendriya Vidyalaya as a Primary School Teacher from September, 2014 to January, 2015.
- Presently, working as an Assistant Professor (Education) in Miranda House College, University of Delhi.