TULA ANNUAL REPORT 2016-17 For the session 2016-17, TULA, Miranda House Consumer Club has been actively trying to spread the word of Consumer Awareness. This session for Tula began with Orientation as the first major event. On 3rd August 2016 for newly enrolled young girls, TULA organised a session conducted by our TULA Union. Dr. Jayashree Pillai, Convenor of TULA, addressed the students by telling them the importance of consumer rights and how TULA has completed a decade of its existence. Under her leadership the Union members spoke and gave a presentation on the need of consumer awareness, how we are trying to achieve it and how we plan to move forward. Fresh women were very keen to join the club, with an urge to promote consumer awareness in society.

Towards the end of Orientation, the interested students registered to join the society. Thereafter, Fresher's Talent Search was conducted in the month of August. For the contest of Tula's Miss Fresher, the competition was competitive as numerous students registered. The selection was done in two rounds. In the very first round students had to show their talent in form of essays, poems, sketches or posters on "Importance of Consumer Awareness in the Contemporary World". The shortlisted candidates were invited for a Quiz where they were quizzed upon the Consumer Rights, Consumer Act, TULA- the society itself and about the other Consumer Issues. Out of the five final candidates, Nidhi was selected as Ms. Fresher of TULA, Miranda House Consumer Club. Late in August we organised few meetings of the Club Members to discuss various issues and how our society can contribute towards it. Some students raised the concern of "Swachh Bharat Abhiyan" and its crucial significance in day-to-day life. We realised how not only Cleanliness Drives are important, but that awareness was all the more important because of them. One of the members pointed out how we, as an educated and aware youth don't even bother about throwing away our own trash. So, from our own college we contacted the Nescafe shop staff and we asked them to let us paste slogans related to Cleanliness over the coffee cups. This is how it began and for two days members of the Club brought slogans and pasted over those cups.

We also felt that there was an initial connection between consumers and cleanliness which we believe cannot be overlooked. After the Delhi University Students Election, we also felt the need for a clean campus around us. So, TULA members along with NSS of Miranda House and No Poster Party organised a cleanliness drive at our Campus on 9th September 2016.

Numerous students from various societies and even colleges started a march from Miranda House Hostel Gate to in and around campus, ending it at Law Faculty. From 20th to 22nd September 2016 Tula conducted a Three Days Workshop on “Awareness on Consumer Issues”. Like every other year, this workshop has become a tradition of Tula. On the very first day, Mr. Sandeep Jindal, Advocate in Supreme Court of India came for the first session. He gave a lecture on Consumer Protection Act-1986 and upcoming Amendment Bill. His session was very enlightening in the sense that he not only told us about the provisions of the acts but also how these provisions are and will be in the favour of the consumers. His session was followed by an Open House Discussion initiated by Dr. Jayashree Pillai, convenor of TULA. Students shared their perspectives and experiences and the day ended with a great discussion. On the second day of the workshop Mr. Sahil Monga, an advocate in Supreme Court came for the first session. He gave a very insightful presentation on Goods and Service Tax Bill and its implications on Indian Consumer. His presentation was very much appreciated as he gave us a very holistic view of GST. In the second session Dr. Sheetal Kapoor, Associate Professor from Kamala Nehru College addressed the students. She gave a presentation on Comparative Testing of the Products. Her session was followed by Mock Consumer Court Act prepared by the Club members. The students in the play demonstrated how a consumer gets redressal and how a consumer court proceeding works. On the last day, Ms. Diksha Rai, an alumna of Miranda House, an Advocate of Supreme Court, Office of Attorney General & Standing Counsel for State of Assam, spoke on the Young Indian Consumer. Her session was very interactive as she engaged with the participants and from their examples, she took up the conversation. In the last session of the workshop, all the students gave individual and group presentations on ‘What did we learn?’. Students had the liberty to present in whatever way they desired. Students presented their reports in the form of poetry, small one act plays, speeches and posters. Their creative thoughts and way of presentation was judged, on the basis of which the best presenters were awarded. Followed by this, the Valedictory Session was organised, in which the best presenters were handed out prizes and certificates were distributed. In mid- November before the preparatory leave, the Club organised an informal discussion on the topic “Demonetisation and Consumers”. Students participated fervently in the discussion and debated among themselves on how impactful this step had been. Various students supported the decision while the majority was against it. The Club Members met early in January, soon after the semester began. A rich discussion upon the future plan of action was conducted. Students also pitched in innovative ideas for publishing our annual magazine SANTULAN.
