Action Taken Report Non-Teaching Staff Perception Study

Non-teaching staff is an integral part of the college community. About 76.4 percent of the nonteaching staff rates the overall environment of the college as exemplary.

About 75 percent are satisfied with the opportunities for personal and professional growth and skill enhancement. Most of them are satisfied with the infrastructure linked to banking, canteen and medical facilities. Over 77 percent of them feel that the college has above average primary medical health facilities.

They are highly content with the timely disbursement of salary, financial reimbursements of medical bills, leave travel allowance and the educational allowance. It was decided that more training programs would be organised for the lab and administrative staff.
